"Take Off His Grave Clothes"

It was a defining moment. It was perhaps the greatest of all Jesus’ miracles. Raising a man from the dead who had been in the tomb four days. It was unheard of, unprecedented and quite frankly unbelievable. And yet, there before their eyes stood Lazarus at the entrance to the tomb: Alive and walking! Can you imagine the gasps? Maybe some fainted. But all had to be both amazed and terrified at the same time.

In the midst of all this excitement, Jesus recognizes a need. Lazarus was still wrapped in the linen strips used to bury him. He says, “Take off his grave clothes”. Lazarus was alive. He wasn’t meant to stagger around like a mummy or a zombie. He was meant to regain his life and live it to the fullest. The next time we hear of Lazarus, he is sitting and eating with Jesus.

Paul reminds us that we all at one time were dead in our sins. He also tells us that through Je- sus Christ we have been made alive. But, like Lazarus, we should no longer be clothed in our grave clothes. In Colossians 3, he tells us to “rid ourselves” of things such as anger, rage and filthy language. He goes on to say, “take off your old self with its practices”.

He goes on to say, “clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and pa- tience”. And, “over all these things put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity”.

Like Lazarus, since we have been made alive, we should no longer walk around as a mummy or zombie. We should take off our grave clothes and put on the clothes of life to the full.

- Tim

PRAYING FOR OUR SICK

Jerry Ray Rosewell is home & recuperating from back surgery he underwent last week. Continue your prayers for Grant Mars has had his bone marrow transplant and doing well. Jackie Terrell will have surgery on October 27 in Tyler, to remove part of his pancreas. Please pray as this is a very hard surgery to undergo. Please pray for Penny Purdy's cousin, Sylvia, who lives in Marshall. Her husband passed recently. Maria Sloan continues to need our prayers. John Burrows was in Houston setting up his surgery for pancreatic cancer. He will be at M.D. Anderson. Please continue your prayers for Bobby Sparks, and Cindy Norsworthy. Also, Kevin Ferris, known by many of our members, had a kidney transplant last Thursday in Dallas. He did well and has moved to an apartment in Dallas for recovery. Kim Greenlee the daughter of our M.L. Martin, is now cancer free. She has finished with 33 rounds of chemotherapy. Pray for Brenda Price as she is having more health difficulties. Her sister is Terry Ann Kraner.
