We are excited to see our Family Life Groups starting up for this new year. May the Lord bless each life group with fellowship, love, prayer, and growth in their relationship with the Lord and one another. We are thankful for all those who have participated over the years. In fact, on the Sundays we have the groups, we have a strong showing each month. We would also like to encourage those who may not have participated to find a group from above and plug-in. Remember that groups are a fantastic way to invite friends, colleagues, and family that may not be ready just yet to step foot in a church building and this is a great tool for evangelism.

Gaius in the book of Third John was a great encouragement to all those who came his way. His household would show hospitality to fellow Christians; some that he may never had met before. John encourages him to continue doing this because the Name of Jesus would continue reaching others. May each household receive you with much love as you meet together to grow in His Word. "Make the most of every opportunity" Eph. 5:16. God bless and keep fired up in the Lord!
Mark
