"Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant"

"I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant of the church in Cenchrrea."

These are the words Paul wrote to the church in Rome about a special woman who had served the church. In October 2005, Janis Terrell became the full-time secretary for the Daingerfield Church of Christ. To her it was more than a job. It was a ministry. She did the mundane things like record keeping, typing and answering the phones. But she did so much more. For many she was a counselor; listening to others as they went through difficult times. She dealt compassionately as people would come seeking assistance with utility bills in times of need. She called the sick and kept us all informed. She decorated her office to brighten the days of those who visited. She had candy and welcomed children. And she made it her mission to help all the different moving pieces of a church this size run smoothly. She had mentioned that she was planning to retire at the end of 2026. But God retired her early. Her grace and energy will be missed. Things will get overlooked for a while. But we will mostly miss her smile, her love and her friendship. For 20 years she served. Now, as the Bible tells us, she can "rest from her labors".

Janis, thank you.

Tim, speaking for all the Church Family
