Number 44

Only in the Gospel we encounter Life

The Gospel Importance

1 Cor. 15:3-4 "3 For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures," (NIV)

With everything going on under the sun it is good to be reminded of what is of first importance. It is the gospel. It is what God has done for us and all the world through Jesus. It is the difference between life and death. It is what gives us hope. It is what gives us purpose. It is the message received by grace through faith in Christ Jesus. Paul would say in 1 Cor. 9:6 "...Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!" It was the most important message he could give.

The Gospel Power

The gospel is still the most important message we can give to others in this nation and in this world. It still has the same power as it says in Romans 1:16-17 "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. 17 For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed—a righteousness that is by faith from first to last,[e] just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."

Let us remember the most important message that gives life. Jesus will say it this way "What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul?" Let us stand firm in the gospel and live the gospel in our lives daily. Keep fired up! Mark

In unsettling times, such as a pandemic, we can find our peace in the presence of the Lord. He is the only one who can effectively prevent the contagious epidemic of fear. Yet, we live in a fallen world that keeps us fearfully treading from one crisis to the next. It seems like every morning we wake up to a new peril: virus pandemics, new flu strains, Ebola, recessions, earthquakes, tornadoes, tsunamis, floods, fires, or any natural disaster...even the threat of other countries attacking us. Then there are our own financial, physical, relational, health, and personal crises that often catch us by surprise and strike terror into our hearts. We feel helpless as events spin out of our control.
