"As Far As It Depends On You"

Talk about "going viral"! The video of the Phillies "Karen" demanding the homerun ball from a father who had given it to his kid (on his birthday, none the less) is everywhere. Mountains of fake information and fake videos and pictures are flooding the internet. So much attention has been paid to the actions of this woman. However, I want to spend time looking at the positive action of the father in this situation.

When confronted by the woman, he had several options as to how he would respond. He could have stood his ground. By almost all baseball park unwritten rules, he was in the right. There is always a scrum for a homerun or foul ball and it is understood that whoever emerges with the ball takes possession. It is also understood that if a kid gets the ball, adults back off. He could have escalated the situation by yelling back at the woman and continuing the confrontation. No one would have opposed him keeping the ball for his son.

But what the man did was take the ball from his son and give it to the crazed woman. The lesson that man taught his son was greater than any baseball. Paul tells the church in Rome, "If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone." (Romans 12:18). But what about when I'm right? What about when I'm being mistreated? What about this or what about that? As far as it depends on you, you be the peacemaker.

Now if you followed the story, you know that the boy was more than compensated by the Phillies. Signed bat and ball and even got to meet the player who hit the home run. In life, it will not always work out like that. And that is not why we always take the high road. We do it because that's what Jesus did. And we follow His example.

- Tim

PRAYING FOR OUR SICK

Jerry Ray Rosewell will have back surgery on Monday, September 15. He will be in Tyler at the Spine & Joint Hospital. Eric Mullins continues with pain in his rib cage and chest. He is dealing with arthritis. Raylon Loupee, the grandson of our Wendy Loupee, had surgery in Plano yesterday. He did well but he will have an MRI to check his knee. He did fracture his femur. Grant Mars is in the process of getting a bone marrow transplant. Please pray for Paul Wilhite. Bess Anna Bennett remains under hospice care at home. Jackie Terrell will have a PET scan on the 24th. If he does have cancer elsewhere besides contained in his pancreas, they can't do surgery. Please continue your prayers for Bobby Sparks, John Burrows and Cindy Norsworthy.
