Number 49

Are we eager to see Jesus?

Great company of heavenly hosts rejoices and sings as they see Jesus, the Good News. Lk. 2:10

The Shepherds in the field ran to Bethlehem to see Jesus, God in flesh. Lk.
2:15

Simeon waited in eager expectation to see Jesus, the Messiah. Lk. 2:26

Anna, a praying woman, rejoices in seeing Jesus the Redeemer. Lk. 2:38

The Magi travelled long distance to see Jesus, the King and to worship Him.
Mt. 2:1

God was revealing to us from the beginning of the life of Jesus just how precious this gift was to humanity. We already see Jesus associated with good news, Immanuel, Messiah, Redeemer, and King. Even more we see the rejoicing of those who encountered Jesus. Can you imagine the shepherds seeing the boy in the swaddling cloths? Can you imagine seeing God fulfill a promise He made to you? Can you imagine seeing the one who would save us? Can you imagine seeing the King of Kings and Lord of Lords? All this should get us fired up!

Are we as eager to rejoice and praise our God for who He is? We should be even more eager to get together in worship to celebrate what the Lord has done for us. Things/activities of this world do not compare to coming to worship with the saints on the first day of the week to meet with Jesus. We also have the weekly celebration of the Lord's Supper to remember what Jesus has done and that He is coming back. May we be more eager to be with Jesus than those who are eager to go to the football game in bitter cold. Let us rejoice in Him together as we look for His coming. Keep fired up, Mark Bonus: We also get to see Jesus in one another, and that can be daily.
