Changes to Staff

As you are aware, events over the past few weeks have made it necessary to make some changes to the church staff. Several months ago Janis Terrell informed the elders that she planned to retire at the end of 2026. We had started making arrangements for this to happen and Karla Dublin had agreed to assume the role of church secretary at that time. We had expected a transition period where Janis would train Karla. However, as you know, that is not what happened. When Janis was hospitalized, Karla temporarily filled in. With Janis' passing, she has now assumed that role full-time. She is doing an excellent job and I have all the confidence in her abilities. We do ask for patience, as some things might get overlooked as she finds her footing.

This also left an opening to fill Karla's position as custodian. Luz Medina and her family have accepted that role. They too will need our patience as they ease into their role. Our facilities are quite large, and we are a messy bunch!

Life comes with changes. It's unavoidable. We appreciate Karla and Luz stepping up and pray for our church family as we adjust to these changes.
