There's No Going Back

"What do we do now?" Perhaps that was the question on the disciples' mind as they journeyed back home to Galilee. Much had just happened and there was still much they did not understand. Jesus had died and been raised from the dead. They had seen Him with their own eyes. He had told them to go and wait for Him in Galilee, so they did. But now what? Was it over? Did Jesus have a plan? As they pondered these and many other questions, Peter decides to go fishing. After all, that's what he was: a fisherman. That's what he knew. Except for the last three years, fishing was his life and now seemed as good a time as any to go back to the way things were. But once you've been with Jesus, Once you've stood face to face with Him, Once you've felt His presence in your life, things can never be the same again. There is no going back.

Jesus surprised the disciples with one last miracle, similar to the first time many of them met Him: a great catch of fish. He fixed breakfast for them on the beach. Then He talked with Peter. Three times He asked Peter if he loved Him. And three times Peter said he did. And three times Jesus said, "Then get to work". Well, actually that's my interpretation. Jesus told him to, "feed My lambs", "take care of My sheep" and "feed My sheep". Essentially, "Then get to work". You see, Jesus was telling Peter that there was no going back. No return to normal. There was work to do.

The same is true for us today. After we experience Jesus; After we have been on this journey, nothing can ever be the same again. We are changed. We are transformed. We are different. Knowing Jesus is a life-changing, life-altering event unlike any other we ever experience. True, we may still be an employee, but not the same employee. We may still be a father or a mother, but not the same father or mother. We may still be a teacher or student, but not the same teacher or student. We have now been charged by Jesus. We have now been challenged by Jesus. Charged with sharing the Good News with others. Challenged to live holy and blameless lives.

Peter and James and John and Andrew and others may have fished off and on over the rest of their lives, but they were never "fishermen" again. They were now Christians. That was their profession. That is who they were. And so it should be with us as well. We may "do" certain things in our lives, but we "are" Christians. Because there is no going back. - Tim
